TOURNAMENT RULES:

- 1. USBC tournament rules and regulations will govern this tournament. This is a USBC certified tournament.
- 2. The tournament is open to all youth bowlers who are current members of USBC and hold a current Junior Gold membership.
- 3. Bowlers will roll SIX (6) games, moving one pair of lanes to the right after each game. Girls and boys will compete separately as long as there are four (4) boys or girls participating. If not, all bowlers will compete as a single group. *Qualifying will be on a 1:5 ratio. If funds allow the ratio may be reduced and more qualifiers identified. The tournament director shall make the final decision based on monies collected and number of participants. Notice of the qualifying ratio will be given prior to the tournament start. EARP can be used.
- 4. Any ties for a position that allows a bowler to go to National Junior Gold there will be a 9th and 10th frame roll off until the tie is broken.
- 5. Dress code – participants must wear long pants (no denims or sweats), Skirts or skorts and shirts with collars and sleeves. Mock collars are acceptable but no t-shirts. (Dress code of Junior Gold Nationals).
- 7. Bowlers must check in at least thirty (30) minutes prior to the tournament start time.
- 8. Each participant is responsible for recording his/her scores on the score sheet provided.
- 9. Only bowlers participating in this tournament will be allowed in the playing area during tournament play.
- 10. Actions considered inconsiderate of fellow participants will not be tolerated. The tournament director will make the determination and may remove a bowler from the competition if needed. If this occurs, no entry fees will be refunded.
- 11. Any violation of these rules could cause suspensions and or disqualification from further participation in this tournament and/or USBC.
